Meet OSPLD

The staff of the Office of Student Programs and Leadership Development (OSPLD) welcomes you. Being a student leader is an incredible developmental experience and with it comes numerous responsibilities. This handbook, as well as OSPLD staff and resources, are available to support student leaders in achieving success with their student organization at San Francisco State University.

purpose

The Office of Student Programs and Leadership Development (OSPLD) is one of several departments within the Division of Student Affairs at San Francisco State University. Serving as the center of student organization activity, OSPLD registers all recognized SF State student organizations. OSPLD trains student leaders and advises students regarding event planning, University policy, fundraising, recruitment, and retention of members. Through collaboration with various faculty, staff and administrators, OSPLD strives to empower students to achieve academic and co-curricular success. OSPLD services facilitate experiential learning, civil discourse and commitment to social justice and equity, to develop strong leaders and conscientious citizens within SF State's diverse and global community.

mission

OSPLD's mission is "empowering all students to succeed as academic scholars, community leaders and conscientious citizens at SF State and beyond."

Leadership Workshops/Trainings

OSPLD provides a variety of leadership training and informational workshops for student leaders. Workshops are provided annually, with numerous trainings occurring throughout the academic year. Workshops cover a variety of topics to best support student leaders. We recommend having several members attend and bring the information back to the organization. For a list of workshops/trainings, please visit <http://www.sfsu.edu/~ospld>

Student Leader Orientations

The introductory leadership workshops educate new student leaders regarding resources, University policies and procedures, and connect groups with other departments to best assist them in their roles as student leaders. For a list of orientation dates, please visit <http://www.sfsu.edu/~ospld>.

OSPLD Advisors

All student organizations have an OSPLD advisor by primary group category. Each professional staff member provides important information to student organizations through their expertise in the areas of event planning, leadership training and University policy. Student leaders are encouraged to stop by OSPLD to meet with your advisor, keeping her/him informed regarding upcoming programs and events so we can best support you in your planning.

Drop-In Office Hours: Quick Questions/Quick Answers

Has something unexpected come up in your planning or student organization? Do you have a quick question? Every Thursday from 3-5 pm is Open Office Hours: Quick Questions/Quick Answers. This is a time all OSPLD staff have dedicated to be in the office and assist students on a drop-in basis.

Web Resources

OSPLD is continually developing comprehensive web resources in an attempt to be available to students 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The web includes student organization listings, online forms, funding resources, event planning checklist and much more. Please visit <http://www.sfsu.edu/~ospld> for information updates and student leader resources.

Student Organization Handbook

This handbook is a guide for student leaders, providing detailed information regarding event planning, University policy and resources. The handbook is also available in PDF version online at <http://www.sfsu.edu/~ospld>.

University Partners

OSPLD works in collaboration with various University departments to best support student organizations. For a list of OSPLD University Partners, please see page 32 or visit <http://www.sfsu.edu/~ospld/html/resources/partner.htm>.
